All of the pieces are very interesting and showy, perfect for playing at Christmas parties and pageants or for great sing-alongs or background music. You could use just this book for the whole Christmas season. It has the sacred songs and the fun ones. Another great thing is that a lot of these songs are played by people on youtube, so you can google them and listen to what they sound like. (I don't know about you, but that really helps me when I am going to learn a new song.) This book is advanced. The songs are pretty hard (for me). I can learn them, but it will take some time and lots of practice, but I'm sure my piano skills will improve in the process so that maybe one day I will be able to play all of them with ease. My biggest complaint is that it is a thick book, and it really should be spiral bound. I took it to an office store and had a spiral binding put on mine because it wouldn't stay open. If there is an option for spiral bound anywhere, it would be worth the extra money to get it.

I appreciate the fact that most of the pieces are in friendly key signatures and stick to the melodies without straying too far away. I also like that there are duets in the back of the book. I have been playing for 21 years, but haven't studied in ten and I find that the music flows well under my fingers. I would highly recommend this book to any intermediate/advanced players who love classic Christmas melodies!

Fifty titles (includes duet versions of some Christmas favorites): Angels We Have Heard on High * Auld Lang Syne * Bring a Torch, Jeannette Isabella * Grandma Got Run Over by a Reindeer * (There's No Place Like) Home for the Holidays * Jingle Bells * Silent Night * Ukrainian Bell Carol (A New Age Rendition) and many others!
